

BIO

Danny Kruphoelter Nunes born in Valencia, Venezuela on March 18, 1981. His father, a musician by profession presents the music and the musician be as a vocation and way of life. At 15 years of age begins to interest in the electric bass, he is taught by distinguished teachers of the city such as Ricardo Martinez (session bass player and musician of numerous international artists) Franco Nasi (alumnus of Berklee College of Music). At the beginning of his career playing with local bands, he decided to expand their knowledge by attending Playerschool of music located in Clearwater, Florida USA, where he receives classes of renowned Bassist Jeff Berlin getting On his return to Venezuela he participates in bands such as FEITIZO (Ska) and KACTUS (jazz band) sharing the stage with artists like Ricardo Arjona, Cristian Castro, Alejandro Fernandez and Vocal Sampling. It is part of the renowned Venezuelan MATARICA Ska band, with which performs Internationals-national tours and participates in numerous TV shows and earn awards such as the National Mara de Oro, manage to place their songs in the top rating. In 2010 he was hired by an American company as musician stage to join the band NAKEDOWN and moved to the United States for 3 years. Upon finishing his work returns to Venezuela to join the progressive rock band NO VOICES and perform the national tour of 2014. That same year he was invited to the Progressive Nation at Sea festival through the BROTHERHOOD band, sharing stage with Mike Portnoy (Dream Theater) Billy Sheehan (MrBig) Jon Anderson (Yes) and bands like Animals as Leaders and Transatlantic. At the end of 2014 travels to Spain to join the national tour of the renowned orchestra of Madrid CALLE 45, culminating the tour returns to Venezuela where he currently works with the new Jazz band Maralha do Muro and recording his solo album LA CAPSULA (fusion).